

Dear Oppenheim Conference Attendees,

I look forward to your arrival. The conference officially begins on Friday Morning April 4th at 9:30 a.m. at the Cincinnati Netherlands Hilton; but I want to make you aware of a lecture by Dwayne A. Tunstall on April 3rd at 7pm in the Conaton Board Room on the campus of Xavier University. If you plan to arrive on the 3rd and would like to attend the lecture, I will do my best – if provided with advance notice – to arrange transportation from the hotel to the lecture and back to the hotel.

We have a series of interesting papers scheduled for the weekend with keynote addresses being given by Randy Auxier, John Clendenning and Jacquelyn A.K. Kegley.

Periodic updates will be provided on the Royce Society Web Page. Please feel free to contact me via e-mail, rodickd@xavier.edu or via phone (207-329-2823) if you have any questions concerning local arrangements.

I look forward to celebrating the legacy of Frank M. Oppenheim, S.J. with you.

David

David Rodick
Assistant Professor
Xavier University