always took a deep interest in the advancement and prosperity of the cause. In his early years he worshipped with what he knew as the East Church, over which our late revered Bro. Black presided for so many years. Upon the death of Bro. Black he became a member of the church in the west of Examsa where he became associated with us.

Our late Bro. Parkinson. Here he continued to reside and to conduct business as opportunity afforded. He was married in 1871, when he settled permanently in the vicinity of Stroud, in the township of Examsa, where he resided for several years. At an early age he became interested in the advancement of the Church and at an early period he became connected with the Church. His connection with the Church was ever active and whenever there was a call for assistance, he was always ready to be called upon and his services were willingly rendered. He was married in 1890, and for many years was a faithful member of the Church.

The death of Elder Roberts. Elder Roberts Royston, of Examsa, whose death occurred on the 17th of April, aged 80 years, is a sad event in the history of the Church. He was a member of the Church for many years and his services were always appreciated. He was a man of great strength of character and a true friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great piety and a devoted member of the Church. He was a man of great wisdom and a wise counsellor to all who sought his advice. He was a man of great endurance and a patient sufferer. He was a man of great faith and a true servant of the Church. He was a man of great love and a devoted friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great strength of character and a true friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great wisdom and a wise counsellor to all who sought his advice. He was a man of great endurance and a patient sufferer. He was a man of great faith and a true servant of the Church. He was a man of great love and a devoted friend to all who knew him.

Elder John Royston. Elder John Royston, of Examsa, whose death occurred on the 17th of April, aged 80 years, is a sad event in the history of the Church. He was a member of the Church for many years and his services were always appreciated. He was a man of great strength of character and a true friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great piety and a devoted member of the Church. He was a man of great wisdom and a wise counsellor to all who sought his advice. He was a man of great endurance and a patient sufferer. He was a man of great faith and a true servant of the Church. He was a man of great love and a devoted friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great strength of character and a true friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great wisdom and a wise counsellor to all who sought his advice. He was a man of great endurance and a patient sufferer. He was a man of great faith and a true servant of the Church. He was a man of great love and a devoted friend to all who knew him.

Elder James Kilgour. Elder James Kilgour, of Examsa, whose death occurred on the 17th of April, aged 80 years, is a sad event in the history of the Church. He was a member of the Church for many years and his services were always appreciated. He was a man of great strength of character and a true friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great piety and a devoted member of the Church. He was a man of great wisdom and a wise counsellor to all who sought his advice. He was a man of great endurance and a patient sufferer. He was a man of great faith and a true servant of the Church. He was a man of great love and a devoted friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great strength of character and a true friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great wisdom and a wise counsellor to all who sought his advice. He was a man of great endurance and a patient sufferer. He was a man of great faith and a true servant of the Church. He was a man of great love and a devoted friend to all who knew him.